THE 400 MILES OF SILENCE BRIDGED

The Government Telegraph Line Has Reached Peace River Crossing As An Advance of

The government telegraph line has reached Peace River Crossing and the northwest corner is now in touch with the outside world. The bridging of the 400 miles of silence between Edmonton and Peace River Crossing is an epoch-making event. It was in Edmonton's pioneer days, and it will be so in the north.

It is forty years since the Dominion government through the public work department, instituted the policy of providing cutting and isolated points with telegraphic communication. Each successive government has continued this policy and extensions have been made until the government telegraph system now embraces over 70,000 miles of lines.

Those lines are in the northern provinces of the province of Quebec, in British Columbia, where the logging and mining came, and in the north, where the line touches the outside world and in the northwest provinces the line is Saskatchewan and Alberta. From the Cape to Peace River Crossing via Battleford, Regina, Moose Lake, Landing and Grouard, and from Moose Lake to Willow Hubs.

It is twenty-five years since the line was built into Edmonton, the first line news coming over the wire being about the rebellion.

The line from Peace River Crossing will be immediately connected to the Shafaroff Settlement which is along the valley there sixteen miles, and the entire line will be put in communication with the Crossing by telephone.

This winter Edmonton will be in touch by telegraph with Athabasca Landing, Slave Lake, and the east end of Lesser Slave Lake, Grouard, which is at the mouth of the same lake, and Peace River Crossing.

CHURCHMAN, Oct. 12.—In the most important session that it has held for many years, the House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal convention here this afternoon not only reversed its decision of a few years ago, but refused to pass an amendment to the constitution providing for suffragan bishops, but, by a vote of 100 to 40, authorized a committee to investigate the faith healing movement. The suffragan bishop proposed a resolution calling for a committee to investigate faith healing by means of prayer or suggestion. The suffragan bishop proposed had come before the House of Bishops last week after the House of Bishops had adopted the resolution at that time was done. Today it was brought up again as a special order of business and was adopted after a debate by a vote of 100 to 40. It resolved to take up the matter.

STRIKE LEADERS UNDER ARREST

French Government Meets Strike Situation With Firmness—Traffic Badly Hampered

Paris, Oct. 12.—The French government is meeting the situation coming from the general strike of railway employees with a firmness that challenges the admiration of even those who sympathize with the men in their demands for a minimum wage of $1 a day. Five of the most influential strike leaders were placed under arrest today in fulfillment of Premier Briand's promise to punish strikers. The National Railroad union has succeeded in thoroughly demoralizing the service on the Northern and Western systems. On the eastern and southern lines the situation is less serious, but little change from that of yesterday.

The mobilization of railroad resources decreed by the government is proceeding, but it has not yet reached large numbers, but as they have not been ordered to take up the work of the strikers, the strike is effective in the western road leading to Lons-le-Saunier, Besancon, Lyons and Dijon, and in the north, and on the northern road extending to Amiens and about Calais. It had failed up to this afternoon on the southern division over Dijon, Calais, Lyons and Besancon. The Mediterranean line are affected. The eastern road to Belgium and German ports is still open, but the service is hampered.

Mr. Fisher will spend four years at Wycliffe College in preparation for ordination, after which he will resume his duties in the north. Coming to Canada from England four years ago, Mr. Fisher worked for one year at Athabasca Landing before going north to Fort Vermilion where, since that time, he has been engaged in teaching in one of the schools conducted by the Anglican mission. There is no village at Fort Vermilion, and the settlement, which numbers fifty white people, is scattered along the banks of the Peace River for a distance of about ten miles. Practically all the settlers are farmers, many of them having extensive cultivation on the river and flood areas. Splendid crops are produced on the fertile soil, and though the Port is situated at a point four hundred miles north of Edmonton, wheat and subject to summer frosts, at no time during the past ten years has there been a total crop failure.

TROUBLE FROM AN ASSIGNMENT.

Trouble arising from an assignment of the estate of the late Justice Beck in the Supreme Court yesterday. In 1907 J. McCullum, a merchant assigned to S. H. Smith, the official assignee, for the benefit of his creditors. Subsequently an agreement was entered into under which he transferred his business to his creditors. Disputes arose concerning the amounts payable under this agreement. Smith contended that there was a certain amount due to him above that which McCullum was willing to acknowledge. The agreement was made under which McCullum would pay half the debt in dispute. McCullum tendered the amount due under this agreement and asked for a release of the securities that were held by the assignee. Smith would not release the securities, and he refused a settlement until he had received from McCullum $1000 in addition to the amount agreed upon. McCullum entered an action to compel a settlement under the terms of the second agreement, and Smith entered a counter claim for an order to compel payment of the whole amount of the claims due.

The case was adjourned yesterday afternoon and will come up again this morning. H. H. Hyndman is acting for the plaintiff and S. B. Woods for the defendant.

APPLIES FOR COMPENSATION.

The application of Sam Wannak for compensation for injuries received while in the employ of Joseph Lewis Co., proprietors of the Utah Mine, situated on the north side of the Saskatchewan, about 100 miles from Edmonton, was heard yesterday in the District Court before Judge Lewis. The accident occurred on the 15th of January of the present year. The applicant, Wannak, was entering the mine by the only shaft then in use by the proprietors, which was divided into two compartments by boards nailed in the corners to form a rough platform. Wannak, while in the shaft, was struck by one of the descending buckets and fell a distance of thirty feet, spraining his left ankle, fracturing the bones of his right foot and also receiving some internal injury. The exact nature of which was not stated. It is stated that Wannak, who he has been unable to perform any labor since the date of the accident and will not be able to work for which at the time of the accident he has not the means to pay. The claimant, the respondents, under the Workmen's Compensation Act, is now seeking for the whole of the time which he has been laid up since the date of the accident.

The respondents endeavored to show that Wannak had been discharged at the day previous to the accident, and further that a notice had been placed prohibiting the miners from using this shaft during working hours. On both of the applicant the attempt was made to show that at the time of the accident he had not been discharged, and further that at that time there was no warning notice posted at the shaft.

The only remaining witness in the medical man who attended Wannak after the accident, and the hearing will be concluded this morning. H. A. Fardes is acting for the respondents, and H. H. Robertson for the respondents.

WHY RATES SHOULD ADVANCE.

President of Pennsylvania Railway Says Higher Wages and High Cost of Living Are Causes.

Washington, Oct. 12.—President J. W. McCarty, of the Pennsylvania railway, testified today's hearing before the Interstate commerce commission on proposed advances in freight rates for the roads under that body. He was one of the witnesses stand throughout the day. He urged the necessity, from the point of view of the railway, in making the proposed increases in rates on account of the increased expense in wages incurred by the roads during the past ten years, aggregating thirty-three per cent in the case of the Pennsylvania, and the increased cost of living, which he said was very operative in the railway service and the increased cost of maintenance of a railway service adequate to the needs of the people.

CAMROSE

The Centre of Railways, Coal, Water Supply, The Lutheran Educational System of the West and Finest Agricultural Lands

Has once more suddenly come into recognition amongst the shrewd investors of this western country. Lots in CAMROSE are steadily increasing in value—the population is growing and numerous enquiries for property are being made with the result that the demand is raising land values.

Lots in Camrose have been selling at $100 and $150 infinitely further away from the railroad depots than the sub-division we are at present offering.

Property is bound to increase when the town grows and the town is growing.

It cannot help it.

It has the best railroad connection of any city in the West outside of Winnipeg.

It has unlimited COAL and WATER POWER.

It has as fine FARM LANDS as are in the West.

It has large wholesale firms locating there.

It has the beginning of an educational centre.

Now see what we are doing on Saturday next to give you an opportunity to get in touch with this forward movement. We have

10 LOTS To be Given Away FREE IN EASTMOUNT

One of the open and delightful sub-divisions of Camrose. This sub-division is to be sold out by us this week. EASTMOUNT is situated within a half mile from the C. N. R. depot, is absolutely high and dry and is in easy walking distance of the three great Trans-continental Railroads which call here. The location of EASTMOUNT shows that it must become very valuable property, as Camrose will grow because it cannot help it. It has taken years for most cities to get three railroads. Camrose has practically inherited these transcontinental lines, besides being the centre of a splendid farming district.

We intend positively GIVING AWAY 10 LOTS FREE to purchasers of this splendidly situated sub-division in order to sell the entire property. The sub-division will be divided into blocks and each block will contain a certain number of free lots. Do you want something free? Think it over.

ROBERT SMITH, the well known auctioneer, will sell this property next Saturday night, October 15th, at 8 o'clock, by PUBLIC AUCTION, with a reserve price of $25 PER LOT, in the offices of "The best buying

To those who know, these prices speak for themselves, but for the benefit of those not knowing values, we wish to state that this is absolutely the lowest-priced property in the city of Edmonton, being lower in price even than property the same distance from the post office in the East End.

There are houses going up in Hempriggs today worth $2,500, the car line will be run either past or through the property in the spring, the Westmount school is only a few blocks away, and the city sidewalks are close to the property, so that you do not have to hold this property a year or more before you build on it. You may build at once and have good neighbors. YOUR OWN BROKER CANNOT GIVE YOU PROPERTY ANYWHERE IN THIS CITY TO COMPARE WITH THESE PRICES; ASK HIM. WE CANNOT GIVE YOU ANY MORE EITHER.

Do not take a week to think over this, or you will be too late; these are all the lots at this price, and every lot is high and dry, so act quickly.
